SAGE GUTIERREZ

ABOUT ME

Adaptable and detail-driven professional shaped by experience across healthcare operations, logistics, and team leadership. Through roles at AdventHealth and in operations management, I developed a strong foundation in compliance, urgency under pressure, quality assurance, and cross-functional collaboration. Currently advancing my technical skill set through formal cybersecurity education with hands-on experience in Windows Server, Linux environments, and computer hardware. Known for reliability, analytical thinking, and process improvement, I bring a systems-focused mindset and a strong work ethic to technical and operational environments.
